You Strike It Rich

if you strike one of our handsome SATIN-LINED

OVERCOATS. We know a great many feel poor about Christmastide, but every one must show a FAIR EXTERIOR and put his best foot forward on all oc-casions. You may buy fifty-cent under-shirts and twenty-five cent socks, but you must look prosperous if you would be as, and nothing so conduces to both as silk and satts.

is wonderfully given to estimating by appearances, notwithstanding the proverb "that appearances are deceifful."

After all, perhaps the world is right, for how else would it come to conclusions at all? They (the coats) don't cost as much as many suppose who have never investigated the matter. We are always getting down to BOTTOM PACTS as well as figures, and to-day put within the reach of the most modest inclina-tion overcoats handsomely lined with satin as low as

TWENTY DOLLARS, a thing not thought of a few years ago. We have finer ones, if you will, reach-SIXTY DOLLARS, about the same sort a New York tailor would charge you one hundred and twenty-five dollars for.

We say New York tailors because we know they get up the best. But few persons think of having overcoats made to order when they can find such well-made and well-fitting overcoats as ours are, and when they can find such assortments to select from as ours, and see exactly how they will look, taking no chances in the tailor-made article, whose appearance cannot be estimated until completed, perhaps too late.

Ours are always ready, early or late, Look in at us.
